The following pages are a collection of photographs taken between the spring of 1971 and the spring of 1972 in and around St. Mary's College. In the absence of any competition, it looks like this is the yearbook this year. The photographs are by Mark ("Yalsa") Williams, George Prentis, Mike Franchuk, Ron Sachs and myself. The technical quality of the pictures suffered from the fact that I jammed all the processing and lay-out into a 3-week period so that the book might be available by graduation. There are no captions in the hope that the pictures tell the story. I want to thank: Arnie Sachs and Gene Forte for the use of their darkroom, Gene Lee for printing tips, Pat Main and Frank Vanni for subbing in my R.C. duties, and Cathy Walsh for the use of her iron.
